

The people at the circus

What do these people do at the circus?

Draw a line between the person and what they do.

This person throws lots of things in the air, catches them, then throws them in the air again! This person can keep things in the air for a long time.

This person works with big, strong wild animals. The animals are not afraid of him and they do what he says.

This person wears funny clothes and does funny things. He makes people laugh.

This person leads and directs the show. He introduces each person with a loud voice, and says "Here is Coco the clown, the funniest clown you have ever seen!"

This person does tricks on a swing - she jumps and moves around. But the swing is very high up in the air!

This person can move and carry very heavy things.
